

Have You Heard?

By Dorothy McCain Elsenius

The City of Albany was deeply saddened last week by the sudden death of Marcella Browne, wife of Fire Chief Gerald Browne. Marcella's fond affection for her family extended beyond them to the community in which they lived, and she was never too busy to answer a call for help from a needy friend or neighbor. I can remember a night many, many years ago when she and Gerald got out of bed in the middle of the night to look after my two youngest children, while I took my seriously ill older child to the hospital and kept a bedside vigil there until the early morning.

Marcella's apple sauce cakes were famous, and she was only too glad to bake and donate to many fund-raising events in town.

Albany has lost a great lady, and one of the many wonderful people who make the town the place it is.

Not to be outdone by Albany American Legion Post 292, Maurice W. Drucker, Adjutant of the Royal Canadian Legion, Berkeley Post 113, would like our readers to know that his post has been conducting bingo games for the veterans at the Martinez Veterans Hospital for the past several months.

"We can't boast," says Adjutant Drucker, "that each player receives a prize. But everyone who gets a bingo gets a coupon to use at the Canteen, paid for by our Post."

Department Heads Report On Hill Project

By Dorothy McCain Elsenius

Conclusions drawn from estimated City revenues and expenditures indicate that with the proposed Albany Hill project "it would be possible to have a lower tax rate, all other items remaining constant."

The chart illustrating the City budget both with and without the project, was part of a 19-page report prepared for City Council members by City department heads.

The report also noted that "any reduction in the number of units would have a direct relationship on revenue sources, yet the expense will, in many instances, be fixed because of the nature of the project." In short, the balance point for a favorable consideration by the City is critically tied to density of the project development, and a reduction to 2,000 units would result in a few cents, rather than a 17-cent savings resulting from 2500 units.

The assessed value of the City would increase approximately 45 percent as a result of the Albany Hill project, and thus spread existing indebtedness over a broader base and reduce the individual homeowner's obligation.

The City would also receive some $35,000 per year in gas tax funds for construction as a result of Albany Hill, and funds derived from sewer connection charges for the project would bring in approximately $149,000 to be used for the maintenance and construction on the sanitary sewer system.

As a part of the project, Interstate General Corporation would, at its own expense, see to the extension of all utilities to the site including sewer, water, gas, electricity, telephone, and would widen Pierce Street adjacent to the project.

The developer would also improve the remaining 24 acres of open space to specifications acceptable to the City, and donate to the City as much of the land as it wishes to take over and maintain.

It is the feeling of City Staff members that the donation of some 4 acres near the Blind Orientation Center, plus 2 acres at the top of the Hill would be in the best interest of the City. These areas would receive maximum use by the public and would be maintained by the City, leaving the remaining 18 acres to be maintained by the project, but available for passive uses by the general public as approved by the City.

The report notes that the exact value of the 24 acres of open space with improvements, the donation of 6 acres improved as park facilities, and the perpetual maintenance of the 18 acres of "open space" is not known. However, it does represent a value of many hundreds of thousands of dollars to the City.

With the donation, the Parks and Recreation Department's expenditures would be increased by an estimated $100,000, because of the addition of a facility near the Orientation Center and an overlook Park at the top of the Hill. Non-departmental expenditures would also increase as a result of more public parks and open space and exposure could increase the City's insurance costs some $4,000.

The Fire Department noted that fire protection in a facility of this type is completely different from the rest of Albany. Complete facilities must be provided on the site consisting of hoses, masks, axes, ejectors, communication and vertical transportation facilities, and everything else needed to detect, control, and extinguish a fire. These devices will be provided by the developer as an integral part of the development. With high rise units, all evacuation and/or firefighting is done from within, using elevators with standby power and/or stairways.

The project will also be assessable to the Fire Department in

1973 AFS Applications

Albany High juniors and seniors interested in spending a summer or a year abroad on the AFS Americans Abroad program are reminded to return their completed applications before October 3. Applications, which were handed out to students during the second week of classes, should be returned to Albany High vice-principal, Mr. James Walker, before the deadline.

The selection of two Albany High AFS candidates from among the applicants will be done through individual interviews and background information provided by the student and his family. While good marks in school are considered in the selection, they are not a determining factor. The AFS committee will be looking for juniors and seniors who possess the ability to appreciate life in a new environment, with a different culture and a different set of values—young people endowed with curiosity, imagination, good humor, perseverance and concern for other people.

For further information and application forms, juniors and seniors can contact the AFS Americans Abroad Coordinator, Ken Logan, evenings at 548-5394 or Mr. James Walker at Albany High.

Note of Thanks

Council: Hill Decision Soon

In a meeting punctuated by angry outbursts and a dramatic walk-out by Councilman Richard Clark, the Albany City Council voted to end the Public Hearing on the Interstate General Corporation hillside project and to take "action" next Monday night.

Councilman Hubert Call explained that action could mean a decision for or against or to merely hold a decision over until following sessions.

Of 13 communications read by the City Clerk most were in favor of the project, citing such advantages as its helpfulness in paying bonded indebtedness. Those in opposition called the project a nuisance and "ugly."

Mr. O'Donnell, representing IGC, made a presentation explaining the recent HUD decision. He stated that HUD insurance refusal was based not on the current plans for the hill project, but rather on the first draft of plans developed by his firm. At this time HUD does not have any of their supplemental reports nor the staff studies done by the City. HUD will allow a re-application of the feasibility application, although O'Donnell did not state whether they would reapply.

A representative from Associated Mortgage Company's west coast branch addressed the Council and assured them that IGC would be financed by his firm, and that he considered the project would be a "success."

The Deputy Health Officer, Harold Van Coops spoke saying the project had satisfied him with the health aspects.

Several opposers to the project spoke, including Robert Elliott who warned the Council that he was writing to the State Attorney General for an injunction to force the city to comply with the Environmental Protection Act. This brought an angry response from Councilman Lewis Howell who told Elliott he would not be intimidated.

Councilman Howell made the motion to close the Public Hearing and for the permit request to be on the agenda for decision next Monday. This motion was carried by a 5-0 vote. After the vote, Councilman Richard Clark gathered up his belongings and walked out of the meeting, for an unclear reason.

Mayor Carlevaro then moved that the City Administrator be allowed $1,500 for outside reports on the project. This motion carried by a 4-0 vote.

After a 5 minute recess, the meeting resumed.

The Council routinely approved Resolution No. 72-74, confirming the appointment of James R. Simmons as Permanent Sergeant in the Police Department, Resolution No. 72-75 establishing green, white, and red zones on the east side of Key Route Blvd., and approved the first reading of Ordinance No. 72-011 amending the City Code in regard to qualifications for the Chief of Police.

Also, Arthur Smith, Acting Chief of Police (Chief Jensen is on vacation) recommended the permanent rank of Patrolman for Duncan Alexander Gillis and the extension of employment of Elizabeth Dalrymple. These were both approved.

City participation in the cleanup of Albany Hill and Point Fleming was clarified. No city vehicle will go onto private property but if the debris is brought to a city street it will be picked up.

Citizens Against the Coastal Initiative asked support in opposition to Proposition 20. Their request was tabled.

Concerned parents were assured of cooperation regarding crossing of school children. City officials are studying possible stop sign positions, and are also stationing police radar on danger areas. Mayor Joe Carlevaro also suggested that perhaps the PTA could find volunteers to act as crossing guards. Councilman Howell initiated a motion to provide two more guards for a 30-day trial period to indoctrinate the children with safe crossing procedure.

A communication dealing with a Joint Refuse Rate Study was held over until next week.

In three quick statements, Councilman Howell asked that the City Attorney make a judicial review regarding the State Lands Commission, the Clark vs. the City Council of the City of Albany case, and asked for a 60

Anniversary Celebration

More than 150 members and friends helped to celebrate the 10th anniversary of the Albany Senior Center on Sunday afternoon. It was, indeed, a day to remember and a day of remembrance as we considered the problems and pleasures of days gone by. The nostalgia blossomed into song and merriment as the day progressed and, hopefully, is an omen of happy days to come.

Our Chairpeople of the day, Clara and George Edlefsen and Mollie and Cy Levine were ably assisted by a wonderful committee of willing workers. We had a beautiful display of paintings and handcrafted items made by our members, and a display of awards made to us by the agencies we assist in our Community Service.

We are very grateful and extend our sincere thanks to the friends who commemorated our anniversary with gifts: the Carroll Boyds, the Harold Olsons, the MacGregor family, the Women's Council of the Berkeley Realtors, and the Soroptimist Club for their generous checks; the Albany Lions Club for painting the trim on our building, the Albany Soroptimist Club for new bookcases and the Albany Insurance Agents Association for the new color television set.

Thanks to all who came to celebrate with us; we were honored by your presence.

School Bond News

September 19, Vista PTA voted overwhelmingly to endorse the school bond issues, propositions H and I on the Nov. 7 ballot.

Mr. Dean Lipe of the School Bonds Election Committee explained the measure in detail and stressed that the cost to property owners is relatively small considering the critical need of the community now with schools on double session. For a $20,000 house the increase in taxes the first year would be less than three dollars a month and costs would decrease in following years.

The School Bonds Election Committee meets every Thursday night at 7:45 p.m. in Cornell School Cafeteria and anyone interested is invited to attend.

At the Wednesday meeting of the Board of Directors of the Berkeley-Albany Board of Realtors, a vote was taken and passed to endorse Albany's school bond measures, Proposition H and I. Before the action was taken, a presentation explaining the issues and their impact was made by Jerome Blank, Albany Realtor, and chairman of the Albany School Bond Committee.

The Committee's Finance chairman, Bruce Davis, held a meeting of his committee on September 19 to outline his plans for obtaining necessary funds for the campaign. The plans were presented to the Steering Committee meeting September 21 in the Cornell Library. General Chairman Jerome Blank discussed these plans and mentioned there has already been a strong show of support.

The bond issue is designed to provide funds to replace schools which have been declared unsafe due to earthquake hazards.

At this week's general meeting, Thursday, Sept. 28, at 7:45 p.m. in the Cornell School Library, Mr. Blank will lead discussion on all topics relating to getting the necessary information to all our citizens. All are urged to attend.

Tonight the Albany Parent Nursery will hear Mr. Leonard L. Keck, speaking on the Albany School Bond measures, H and I. Keck will explain the importance of the issues to the futures of the children of nursery school age as well as to the community. The school is located in the Children's Center and the meeting starts at 7:45.

Tomorrow, Sept. 28, at 7:30 p.m. Jerome Blank, chairman of the Albany School Bond Committee, will address the Albany Teachers Association in the Cornell School cafeteria. The subject of his talk, the school bond issue, is of special interest to this group of teachers, as it will shape their futures and the futures of their students.

Any organization interested in having a speaker to talk about the issue may contact Mrs. John Thomsen at 527-2449.

Tuesday, Sept. 26, Marin School was boarded up by District personnel. The school was declared earthquake unsafe by State engineers in October of 1971 and ordered by the Albany Board of Education not to be used for school use after June, 1972.

The Fire and Police Departments had ordered the building boarded because of vandalism, and the School Board authorized the action at its meeting Sept. 12.

CC Promotion For October

The Albany Chamber of Commerce Promotion Committee met Thursday, Sept. 21, at the Chamber Conference Room to suggest ideas for the annual fall event.

Elmer Coble, chairman, and Art Brickey of the Albany Times, presented some suggested programs, which are being considered, along with those advanced by other committee members.

Another meeting is scheduled for Thursday, Sept. 28, at which time plans will be finalized for the fall promotion tentatively scheduled for Oct. 15 to 30.

Committee members present in addition to Coble and Brickey, were Eleanor Sanjuk, Dick Miles, Michael Fahmie, Hal Pavey, Liz Pursell, Bill Garren, Red Call, Irene MacWilliams and Hal Denham.

Why a Four-Year High School?

They feel that, as more emphasis is placed on early education in grades K-3, we will see more enthusiasm for learning in high school age students.

A major problem at our present 5-year high school is that it discourages students from staying in school for the full 5 years. A cohesive 4-year program, hopefully, will keep more students interested.

With the 8th graders at the Middle School, alternatives in scheduling and curriculum planning will be possible. "Teachers, especially in vocational areas, would be more effective if they didn't have to work out double class plans," Lynn adds.

An increase in building activity, such as the proposed apartments on Albany Hill, would undoubtedly add to the student population at the high school. Space made available by the removal of 8th graders could also be used to provide room for badly-needed adult school facilities, and for the expansion of the present library to provide multi-media facilities.

Ross is concerned about educational program deficiencies at grades 6-7. Specifically, eighth graders have no social studies, no science, and less than adequate opportunity for exploratory programs in music, art, shop, and homemaking. As he knows from his own commitment to the music program, 8th graders who enroll in instrumental music have no opportunity to pursue either art or vocal music.

The tripling-up of students at the high school this year has hurt the present instrumental music program badly, cutting instruction time nearly in half for both Band and Orchestra. The morning schedule for the students, with its 45-minute periods, is especially hard on physical education, science and vocational classes.

Socially, 8th graders are hurt by being at the high school. "They are invisible but not inaudible," says Lynn. She goes on to say that they are either not invited or not encouraged to participate in very many school activities.

"They are ill-prepared, boys especially, to be with older kids in P.E. classes," says Ross. Lynn adds: "Eighth graders charge through the halls making noise and then everybody else yells at them."

Lynn and Ross agree that with the successful passage of measures H and I many of the above mentioned social and educational problems can be resolved and the education of all the children of Albany will be greatly improved.

Marcella Gertrude Browne, wife of Albany's Fire Chief, Gerald D. Browne, passed away unexpectedly in Hayward on Sept. 17, 1972. Mrs. Browne was a native of San Francisco and had been a local resident for 45 years.

She was a member of St. Ambrose Church, Branch 54 Catholic Ladies Aid, St. Albert's Guild, Catholic Action, and Albany Parlor 260, NDGW, and Albany Ladies Auxiliary, Calif. State Firemen's Association.

Last rites were from the Chapel of Ellis-Olson Mortuary, Albany, on Wednesday, Sept. 20, with a 9 a.m. Mass at St. Ambrose Church, Berkeley. Burial followed in St. Joseph's Cemetery, San Pablo.

Mrs. Browne is survived by her husband, Gerald D., children, Donald J. Browne of Sunnyvale, Barbara J. Wallace of San Leandro and Gerald D. Browne, Jr., of Hayward; six grandchildren and two daughters-in-law, Betty Jean and Margie Browne, and son-in-law, Robert Wallace.

You and Your Heart

Explore heart disease, its detection and treatment, in a new lecture-demonstration, premiering at the Lawrence Hall of Science, University of California, Berkeley, on the weekend of September 30 and October 1, at 2:30 p.m.

A fast-moving, three projector slide show will first take the audience to leading Bay Area medical facilities for a close-up look at heart care. Visit the coronary care unit at Peralta Hospital, Oakland, the clinical laboratory at Alta Bates Hospital, Berkeley, the cardiology department at Children's Hospital of the East Bay, and the open heart surgery team at the University of California Medical Center, San Francisco.

This multi-media presentation was sponsored by the Alameda County Heart Association and produced as a volunteer project by five students from the University of California, under the direction of Andrew K. Lee, executive producer.

Then imagine the stage set as a miniature surgery for an exciting 45-minute demonstration which will follow the slide show. Learn how modern medical equipment and knowledge helped save the life of one man afflicted with heart disease.

Only in the last 15 years have surgeons been able to work within the heart itself, due to the advent of a machine which can take over the job of the patient's heart and lungs during the surgery. The first such heart-lung machine, used by the University of California Medical Center, San Francisco, will be demonstrated to the audience.

Following the presentation, the members of the audience are invited to use the medical equipment, including stethoscopes, blood pressure units, and pulse rate monitors.

The Lawrence Hall of Science offers a full program of activities for the entire family every weekend, and is located on Centennial Drive in the hills above the Berkeley Campus. For further information and admission prices, please call 642-5132.

Office Building Ground Broken

Ground was broken last Friday for the new three-story office building being built by Jerome Blank, Albany Realtor, at 1530 Solano Avenue, Albany, on the same site where Blank's former building was situated. Chief occupant of the new building will be Founders Title Company of Alameda County, which will occupy the main floor.

President John Dosa of Founders Title Company signed a long-term lease and upon completion of the building, the temporary office of Founders at 1327 Solano Avenue will be moved to the new headquarters and Renate Radke, Albany manager, will be in charge. Gene M. Sisson, Jr., Senior Vice President, will be the Northern Alameda County Area Manager and will maintain his office at the new building. In signing the lease with Founders, Blank pointed out that this was the first title insurance company to locate in Albany and that in the short time that Founders had been here, its business had greatly increased due to the large amount of local real estate activity.

Blank will move his own headquarters from its present location in Town Centre, to the top floor of the new building, and there will be space on the Bank level floor for lease to other office tenants. The new building, designed by John M. Hogg, prominent Albany architect, fits into the present 7-11 Shopping Center and will add three more parking spaces to the 11 spaces already there. The building will have a central landscaped lobby and each floor will have a view balcony or private patio. General Contractor is Gerard Fisher of Berkeley who recently finished Blank's Winchell building in Town Centre.

Blank commented, "I have mixed emotions about moving from our present Town Centre location, as our business this year was the best in our history. However, after 25 years at 1530 Solano, many of our old clients still

THE '73 FORDS ARE HERE.

At 60 mph a '73 Ford LTD rode quieter than an airborne glider.

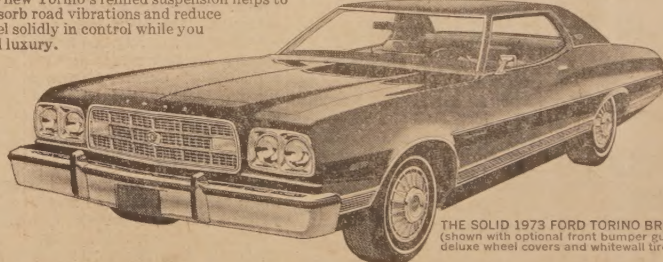

Quiet is the sound of a well-made car. And the new LTD is well made in every sense of the word. That's why it's so quiet. Outside it has all-new styling. And inside you'll enjoy luxury, comfort and room—with power front disc brakes, power steering and automatic transmission as standard equipment.

THE QUIET 1973 FORD LTD BROUGHAM (shown with optional Deluxe Bumper Group, Convenience Group, deluxe wheel covers, front cornering lamps and whitewall tires).

A '73 Torino rode so smooth, a high wire artist kept balance on a road of 2x4's.

Smooth riding, strong and quiet—the solid mid-size car. You'll appreciate how the new Torino's refined suspension helps to cushion bumps, absorb road vibrations and reduce body sway. You feel solidly in control while you ride in comfort and luxury.

THE SOLID 1973 FORD TORINO BROUGHAM (shown with optional front bumper guards, deluxe wheel covers and whitewall tires).

'73 Pinto: When you get back to basics, you get back to Ford.

When you get back to basics, you get back to Ford: the new Pinto. Every '73 Pinto has rack-and-pinion steering. A solid welded body, electrocoated to fight corrosion. 4-speed transmission—lubed for life. All in all, everything we've learned in seventy years of car making—all the basics—we build into every Pinto Wagon, Runabout and Sedan. That's why it's become America's top selling economy car.

THE 1973 PINTO WAGON (shown with Squire Option, luggage rack, Deluxe Bumper Group and whitewall tires).

There are 39 new models to choose from.

Every 1973 Ford, Thunderbird, Torino, Mustang, Maverick and Pinto comes equipped with new energy-absorbing bumpers and steel guard rails in all side doors. Steel-belted radial ply tires are available on every model, too.

time than many locations in the City at the present time. A response time of just over 2 minutes places the project in an area of receiving adequate service from existing facilities. Because the project contemplates the use of its own security personnel throughout its habitable areas, and from a check on apartment units of the caliber proposed, and with agencies providing security to such apartments, the Albany Police Department has determined that any increase in its work load would be minimal. However, any additional personnel required would also benefit the Department, by having additional personnel available for normal police activities throughout the City. Normal complaints between tenants would be handled by the management as a part of their security program, and only criminal involvement would necessitate Police Department intervention. In projects of this type, the demand for police services has been found to be quite low. The development would also be responsible for security policing the portions of the Hill not directly dedicated to the City, yet directly abutting their facilities, including the area adjacent to Cerrito Creek in the vicinity of the White Front Store. The impact on Albany schools would also be minimal, according to School Superintendent Kenneth Forry, who noted that "as you go into the higher rental rates, a larger percentage of school children are sent to various private schools." This would probably result in an increase of only high school students, and Superintendent Forry feels that the number would be small enough to be easily assimilated in the existing facilities. With respect to the increase contemplated in assessed valuation, the Superintendent indicated that he could see no way that the increased assessed valuation, coupled with the low student yield, could result in anything but the lowering of the general property taxes on Albany schools, all other factors remaining constant.

Clubs and Organizations

St. Basilissa Auxiliary of Catholic Charities will hold a "Needlecraft Faire" at the Northbrae Community Church, Sept. 29 and 30. There will be displays of contemporary needlework, weaving, rug making, crewel, needlepoint, macrame and crocheting, plus antique pieces of hand-made quilts, covers, cross-stitch, and embroidery. The Faire is open to the public from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily. A charge of $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for children will be made at the door. For more information call Mrs. Lawrence Hagerty, 524-4553, or Mrs. Del Reynolds, 524-4893.

A Bayview Eagles Auxiliary 2323 luncheon will be held at the hall on Friday, Sept. 29. Proceeds are for the heart fund and Jimmy Durante Crippled Children's Fund. Donation is $1.50. Time is 12 noon. Reservations and unsold tickets must be turned in at the next month's meeting.

Bayview member, Kathryn Hightman, has been elected treasurer in the newly formed Arabella unit consisting of past presidents from all auxiliaries in this area.

The third year of Jewish studies at Temple Beth El will begin Tuesday, Oct. 3, through Thursday, Oct. 5, at 7:00 p.m. and will run for a period of 10 weeks. The classes are open to all interested persons whether they are members of Beth El or not, adults or teenagers.

Seven courses will be taught in philosophy, archeology, Hebrew, sculpture, folk dancing and masterpieces of Jewish cooking. Fees range from $10 per course for members and $15 for non-members to $30 for sculpture. Applications can be obtained from the Temple office, 848-3988.

nets, flowers and Island posters, planning for the hospital's Hawaiian Holidays luau-type party, which will take place Saturday, Oct. 14, at Goodman Hall in Jack London Square.

John McDonald has announced that the local McDonald's Restaurant will be serving breakfast soon. Breakfast will feature English muffins, Canadian bacon, eggs with cheese, plus orange juice and coffee. Sounds like a good deal.

Anyone in need of some tennis balls should contact Chuck Silvera at the Mechanics Bank. Chuck was elected to crawl under the floor of the Albany High School gym recently, when the Albany Rotarians were installing a scoreboard they had donated, and he found a score of balls that had found their way there from the Memorial Park tennis courts through a hole in the foundation.

Happy birthday greetings to September babies — including Bruce Davis, Bill Donahue and Councilman George Hein. Many happy returns.

Councilman Hubert Call is most enthusiastic about the new tennis facilities at Golden Gate Fields. Opening event for the new facilities is the $54,000 Golden Gate Pacific Coast Tennis Classic, formerly held at the Berkeley Tennis Club, which is running through Oct. 1.

Following the tournament the center will be open for public play 7 days a week and will offer adult instruction as well as a huge Northern California junior development program. Negotiations are also underway for the presentation of other state, regional, national and international competitions for next year. As Councilman Call remarked at a recent Council meeting, "Albany could well become the future home of national tennis championships."

Albany conservationist, Neil Havlik, is currently seeking aid in cleaning up the litter and garbage in the Point Fleming area, as well as at the end of Jackson and Taft Streets. He's hoping to enlist the help of Albany High students and ecology club members to clean up the areas, which are being used as a dumping grounds by careless citizens.

Ladies with questions on beauty care should visit Sam's Pharmacy today through Saturday, when Christian Dior cosmetic expert, Gloria Heise, pays a return visit to the store.

Bernie Manders will also be giving a $12 gift, absolutely free, with any $5 purchase of Dior cosmetics during Miss Heise's visit.

days continuation in the Nicora case. These all passed unanimously.

Council members voted to file the Parks and Recreation Master Plan with the State, calling the plan "a concept rather than specifics."

During the Good of the City portion of the meeting, Dario Meniketti called on the Council as "stewards of the people" to "search your souls before making such a momentous decision" (the IGC project decision). Councilman Howell said that the momentous decision was made when the 114-unit apartment was denied setting a precedent for the top of the hill.

Robert Elliott spoke again, saying he had not forgotten the matter of Council members' expense accounts. This brought an angry rebuke from the Mayor, which resulted in several minutes of shouting between the two men. The meeting was then adjourned.

ALBANY POST 292

THE VETERAN'S CORNER
by Chas. Lindh

Like every other organization the American Legion does all its work through committees. This week we begin a series of articles covering various committees and their purposes. A quotation of one of many definitions of the word "Americanism" may be timely. "Americanism is an unflinching love of country, loyalty to its institutions and ideals, defense against all its enemies, individual allegiance to the flag, and a desire to secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and posterity."

The Boy Scout committee is one of the affiliated committees. Its purpose is to build character and citizenship. The American Legion sponsors over four thousand troops throughout the United States. The Albany Post has sponsored troop 12 since 1930. It is an excellent troop and has produced several Eagle Scouts. It has a fine record. The committee is made up of fathers of the boys and they handle the troop very well. One of our members acts as liaison between the Post and the committee and keeps us informed. He is also the Institutional Representative to the District Boy Scout Council. The Albany Post also sponsors a Cub Pack and it is doing well.
